Remember

- There are always more miners than saboteurs. If the saboteurs are quickly discovered, the miners can win easily.
- It is a bluffing game. Everybody will pretend to be miners. faroleo.

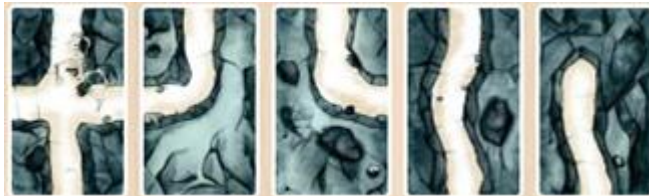

Development of the game.

Aim: For the miners, to get the gold. For the saboteurs, to avoid the miners get the gold. Always remember your role!

Turn. The game is developed by turns in the clockwise. During the turns, each player can do one of those 3 options:

- 1) To play a tunnel card:

- 2) To play an action card.

It can destroy or fix other player's tools (red and green cards, respectively), see one of the three final cards (map card) or delete a tunnel card (collapse card).

- 3) To pass turn. If you can't or you don't want to do a thing, discard a card and pass your turn.

End of the game

- It is considered that a round finishes when a team (saboteurs or miners) achieves its goal. Each member of the winner team will receive a random card with gold seeds. The card could have 1, 2 or 3 seeds.
- A game is played for 3 rounds. At the end of the last one, the player or players with more seeds is the winner.
